IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.5521 of 2008
JABBAR MIAN

5. 14.8.2008 Heard.

The allegation is that the petitioner enticed away 13 year old grand daughter of the informant. It appears that the lady was below the age of 18 years and this inference is strengthened from the fact that the young girl was a student of Class 8 only.

The statement of the girl recorded under Section 164 of the code of Criminal Procedure is copied in paragraph 60 of the case diary and that further complicates the defence of the petitioner that the lady was having affairs with him. She has stated that she was being threatened by the petitioner if she had ever disclosed her identity, caste and religion and that the lady was taken to somewhere in Orissa and there three persons could pick her up and took her to the Police Station from where she was brought to her parent's house.

The offence appears quite series and specially when one considers that the petitioner was a married man and he had taken the lady and kept her with his wife and other family members.

The petition is dismissed.
